

Effective May 1st 2011, the Chautauqua County Department of Human Resources will honor exam notification requests and provisional employment exam notifications on file prior to that date for the appropriate examinations held on or before June 30, 2012. From May 1, 2011 forward, potential exam/employment applicants are encouraged to view the County Website for employment and examination opportunities as they become available. Examination announcements are also posted for public access throughout the communities of Chautauqua County including the Department of Human Resources office in Mayville, NY.