DOWNTOWN, BARKER COMMON PARK

FREDONIA, NY

Lectures, presentations, farmer's market, Civil War re-enactors/encampment, horse-drawn trolley ghost tours, cemetery tours, historical walking tours, psychics, ghost hunter groups, spinning and quilting demonstrations, Victorian clothing displays, puppet show, live theater performance at the Fredonia Opera House, juggling act, performance by the Victorian Dance Society, lots of musical entertainment throughout the day at the gazebo, antiques, arts 'n crafts, good eats ... and a lot more! Something for everyone!! Check out Festivals Fredonia on Facebook for regular postings on all our events!

Horse-drawn trolley ghost tours run from 7 pm to 10:30 p.m. both Friday, July 15 and Saturday, July 16! Meet at the information booth at Barker Common Park. Authentic Victorian-era horse-drawn trolleys take you throughout historic Fredonia touring haunted homes and sites within the Village. You'll hear tales of Fredonia's earthbound spirits and may even encounter some surprises along your travels! Tickets are $10 ... reservations are strongly recommended as tickets sell out quickly... call 888.414.4818 to reserve your spot today!!

On Saturday County Historian Michelle Henry and Fredonia/Pomfret Historian Todd Langworthy will have displays in the park relating to the County's Bicentennial and the War of 1812. At 4 PM Michelle and Todd will present a program on these subjects in the Village Hall.
